

Hi Everyone,

It is hard to believe that another month has passed so quickly. And Winter can't make up it's mind whether to be cold or to thaw and let Spring show it's face. I personally vote for Spring. My dog is so small that she does not like to go out in the cold, good thing she is trained to potty papers, but this morning she went out to do her business (good girl).

In this newsletter you will find the registration for the Spring Workshop (now you know Spring is on the way). Remember, if you register and PAY before April 1, 2010 you get a $5.00 discount. So register soon!! You can send it to me or you can send it directly to Ginger. Please let us know if you are coming whether you pre-pay or not we like to keep a head count.

Ginger would like some ideas for the monthly quilt blocks for next year. What kinds of things are you interested in seeing coming out in the monthly quilt block? So if you have any ideas let Ginger know as soon as possible, because it takes time to get things ready.

T-5053—Smiling Sportsters

T5053 is a set of sports caricatures. I think these will do really well at craft shows already done up on shirts for gifts.

I am, also, showing one of them done with just black outline on the caricature and the name of the sport done in colors. I like it both ways. Of course, the black and white one is quicker than the ones in full color.

As some of you know, my husband Ned is in a nursing home. He has this wonderful little lady as his neighbor. Her name is Miss Emma, she doesn't paint but she colors using colored pencils. One day she asked me to do a picture with her, I had to decline because I can not hold a pencil, but I did tell her I would use one of her patterns and make her a pillow for her bed. Here what I made for her.

She is so proud of this pillow that she will take it to all of the new people in the hall and show them this pillow. It is so easy to make some people happy when they don't have much.

March 14th will be the painting class here at the house. I hope you all come so we can gab about the new color and get some painting done. Also you can fill out the registration for the workshop at that time and pre-pay if you wish.

Paint class at Ginger's will be the 18th of March at 11am if anyone needs directions for that call Ginger (734-428-1344) or myself for directions.

Keep on painting
